4. you will comply with all applicable laws while using the Platform.

If you are under the age of 18, you may use the Platform only with the involvement, supervision and consent of your parent or lawful guardian, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

If you place an Order on behalf of another person, you represent that you have the authority to provide the information necessary to complete that Order.

4. ABOUT BEYOND BUTTON™

Beyond Button is a premium apparel brand focused on creating and offering thoughtfully designed, solid and plain premium shirts and related products.

Our products may be manufactured, sourced, finished, packaged and fulfilled through different suppliers, manufacturers, warehouses, logistics providers and other authorised business partners.

The availability of a particular Product, colour, size, fabric, collection or design may change from time to time.

Nothing on the Platform creates an obligation on Beyond Button to continue offering any particular Product indefinitely.

We may introduce new products, discontinue existing products, modify collections, change availability or make other reasonable business and product decisions from time to time.

5. ELIGIBILITY

You must be legally competent to enter into a binding agreement under applicable law to place an Order independently.

Where a minor accesses the Platform or participates in a purchase, the relevant parent or lawful guardian shall be responsible for the use of the Platform and the transaction, to the extent permitted by law.

You agree not to use the Platform if your use of the Platform is prohibited by applicable law.

6. USE OF THE PLATFORM

You agree to use the Platform only for lawful and legitimate purposes.

You must not:

1. use the Platform for fraudulent purposes;
2. place fake, malicious or knowingly deceptive Orders;
3. use another person's identity or account without authorisation;
4. attempt to gain unauthorised access to the Platform;
5. interfere with the security, functionality or operation of the Platform;
6. introduce viruses, malware, malicious code or other harmful material;
7. use automated systems, bots, scrapers or similar tools to access or extract Platform content without our written permission;
8. attempt to reverse engineer, modify or reproduce any part of the Platform except where expressly permitted by law;
9. misuse promotional codes, discounts, refunds, exchanges or other customer benefits;
10. submit fraudulent reviews or manipulate ratings;
11. infringe any intellectual-property, privacy, publicity or other rights belonging to Beyond Button or any third party; or
12. use the Platform in any manner that may damage, disable, overburden or impair the Platform.

We reserve the right to restrict or suspend access where we reasonably believe that the Platform is being misused or these Terms are being violated.

7. ACCOUNT REGISTRATION

Certain features of the Platform may require you to create an account or provide information such as your name, mobile number, email address, delivery address or other details.

You agree that all information provided by you will be accurate, complete and reasonably up to date.

You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your account credentials and for activities carried out through your account.

If you believe that your account or credentials have been compromised, you should contact us promptly through the customer-support details published on the Platform.

Beyond Button may suspend or restrict an account where reasonably necessary to protect the customer, Company, Platform or other users from fraud, misuse, security threats or other unlawful activity.

8. PRODUCT INFORMATION

We make reasonable efforts to ensure that Product descriptions, photographs, specifications, sizes, colours, prices and other information displayed on the Platform are accurate and current.

However, certain differences may occur between the Product displayed on your screen and the Product delivered to you due to:

- * screen or display settings;
- * lighting conditions during photography;
- * photography and editing limitations;
- * natural characteristics of fabrics;
- * manufacturing processes;
- * dyeing or finishing variations;

- * batch-to-batch variations; and
- * other reasonable variations inherent in apparel manufacturing.

Minor variations that do not materially affect the quality, functionality or intended use of a Product shall not automatically constitute a defect.

Nothing in this clause limits any rights or remedies available to consumers under applicable law.

9. SIZE, FIT AND MEASUREMENTS

Apparel sizing and fit may vary depending on the Product, fabric, construction and intended silhouette.

We provide size charts and/or measurement information where applicable.

Customers are responsible for reviewing the available size information before placing an Order.

If you are uncertain about sizing, you may contact our customer-support team before placing your Order.

A Product being unsuitable because the Customer selected an incorrect size shall be handled according to our applicable Return & Exchange Policy.

10. PRODUCT AVAILABILITY

All Products displayed on the Platform are subject to availability.

A Product appearing on the Platform does not guarantee that the Product will remain available until checkout or fulfilment.

We may cancel or modify an Order where:

- * the Product becomes unavailable;
- * inventory information is incorrect;
- * there is a technical or pricing error;
- * the Order cannot be fulfilled for operational reasons;
- * the delivery location is not serviceable;
- * fraudulent or suspicious activity is detected; or
- * cancellation is otherwise permitted or required under applicable law.

If payment has already been received for an Order that we cancel, the amount applicable to the cancelled Product(s) will be refunded in accordance with our Refund Policy.

11. PRICING

All Product prices displayed on the Platform shall be stated in Indian Rupees unless expressly specified otherwise.

Applicable taxes, shipping charges, COD charges, discounts or other charges, where applicable, will be displayed during the purchase process or checkout.

Beyond Button reserves the right to change Product prices at any time.

Any price change will generally apply prospectively and will not alter the price of an Order that has already been accepted, except where correction is required because of an obvious technical, typographical or system error and applicable law permits such correction.

12. PRICING OR LISTING ERRORS

Although we take reasonable care in maintaining the Platform, errors may occasionally occur.

If a Product is displayed at an incorrect price or with materially incorrect information due to a technical, typographical, inventory or system error, Beyond Button may take reasonable corrective action.

Where an affected Order has not yet been fulfilled, we may contact you regarding the error and, where appropriate, provide the option to reconfirm the Order at the correct price or cancel the Order.

Where an Order is cancelled after payment has been received, the applicable amount shall be refunded in accordance with our Refund Policy.

13. PROMOTIONS, COUPONS AND DISCOUNTS

Promotional offers, coupon codes, referral benefits, discounts, gifts, campaigns and other promotional benefits (“Offers”) may be subject to additional terms.

Unless expressly stated otherwise:

1. Offers cannot be exchanged for cash;
2. Offers cannot be transferred or sold;
3. only one or specified combinations of Offers may be used per Order;
4. Offers may have expiry dates;
5. Offers may apply only to specified Products or categories;
- and
6. Offers may be subject to minimum Order values or other eligibility conditions.

Beyond Button may withdraw or modify an Offer where reasonably necessary due to expiry, misuse, technical error, fraud or other legitimate operational reasons, subject to applicable law.

If an Offer has been obtained or used fraudulently or contrary to its terms, we may cancel or reverse the benefit to the extent permitted by law.

14. ORDER PLACEMENT

When you place an Order, you are making an offer to purchase the selected Product(s) from Beyond Button subject to these Terms.

After placing an Order, you may receive an acknowledgement confirming that your request has been received.

An acknowledgement, payment confirmation, invoice generation or automated Order status does not necessarily mean that Beyond Button has accepted the Order for fulfilment.

An Order shall be considered accepted when Beyond Button communicates acceptance or proceeds with fulfilment, subject to applicable law.

We reserve the right to accept or decline Orders for legitimate reasons including:

- * inventory limitations;
 - * delivery restrictions;
 - * pricing or listing errors;
 - * payment verification issues;
 - * suspected fraud or misuse;
 - * duplicate or unusual Orders;
 - * inaccurate customer information;
 - * inability to contact the Customer where reasonably necessary;
- or
- * other operational or legal reasons.

15. ORDER CONFIRMATION

Once an Order has been successfully placed, we may send an Order acknowledgement to the email address, mobile number or other contact information provided by you.

You should review the Order details carefully.

If you identify an error in your Order, you should contact us as soon as reasonably possible.

We cannot guarantee that changes or cancellations will be possible once an Order has entered processing, packing or dispatch.

16. PAYMENT

Payments may be made through payment methods made available on the Platform, which may include:

- * credit cards;
- * debit cards;
- * UPI;
- * net banking;
- * digital wallets;
- * payment gateways;
- * cash on delivery, where available; and
- * other authorised payment methods.

Payment processing may be carried out by third-party payment service providers.

Your use of a third-party payment service may also be subject to that provider's terms and policies.

Beyond Button does not ordinarily store complete card credentials such as full card numbers, CVV information or banking passwords on its own systems where payment processing is handled through authorised payment partners.

We are not responsible for payment failures caused by your bank, payment provider, network, device, insufficient funds, incorrect payment information or third-party system failures, except where liability cannot lawfully be excluded.

17. CASH ON DELIVERY

Cash on Delivery (“COD”) may be offered for eligible locations and Orders at Beyond Button's discretion.

COD availability may depend on factors including:

- * delivery location;
- * Order value;
- * previous Order history;
- * serviceability;
- * fraud or risk controls; and
- * availability of the COD service.

A COD convenience fee, where applicable, will be disclosed before completion of the Order.

Beyond Button may restrict COD availability where repeated failed deliveries, fraudulent Orders, refusal of shipments or other misuse is reasonably detected.

18. SHIPPING AND DELIVERY

Orders will be shipped to the delivery address provided by you during checkout.

You are responsible for ensuring that your delivery information is accurate and complete.

Delivery timelines displayed on the Platform are estimates unless expressly stated otherwise.

Actual delivery times may vary because of:

- * courier operations;
- * weather;
- * public holidays;
- * regional restrictions;
- * transportation disruptions;
- * incorrect address information;
- * serviceability limitations;
- * operational delays;
- * force majeure events; or
- * other circumstances beyond our reasonable control.

We will make reasonable efforts to ensure timely fulfilment.

However, a delivery estimate does not constitute a guarantee unless expressly stated otherwise.

19. DELIVERY ADDRESS

Once an Order has been shipped, changing the delivery address may not be possible.

If you provide an incorrect or incomplete address, Beyond Button shall not be responsible for delays, failed delivery attempts or additional costs arising directly from such incorrect information, subject to applicable consumer law.

Where a shipment is returned to us because of an incorrect address, repeated delivery failure, refusal to accept the shipment or other circumstances attributable to the Customer, any applicable re-shipping, cancellation or refund treatment will be governed by our Shipping and Refund Policies.

20. CANCELLATION OF ORDERS

Cancellation requests may be submitted through the channels specified on the Platform.

Cancellation may not be possible once an Order has been processed, packed or dispatched.

Where cancellation is permitted, any refund will be processed in accordance with the applicable Refund Policy.

Nothing in this clause restricts any cancellation rights that cannot legally be excluded.

21. RETURNS AND EXCHANGES

Returns and exchanges are governed by the Beyond Button Return & Exchange Policy, which forms part of these Terms.

The applicable policy will specify:

- * the eligibility period;
- * eligible Products;
- * condition requirements;
- * packaging and tags requirements;
- * exchange availability;
- * return exclusions;
- * reverse pickup requirements;
- * self-shipping procedures, where applicable;
- * inspection requirements; and
- * refund or replacement procedures.

Customers must review the applicable Return & Exchange Policy before placing an Order.

Where a Product is returned, Beyond Button may inspect the Product to verify compliance with the applicable policy.

Nothing in our Return & Exchange Policy is intended to exclude rights or remedies that cannot legally be excluded under applicable law.

22. DAMAGED, DEFECTIVE, WRONG OR MISSING PRODUCTS

If you receive a Product that appears to be damaged, defective, incorrect or materially different from the Product ordered, you should contact Beyond Button through the customer-support channels specified on the Platform as soon as reasonably possible.

We may request reasonable information or evidence, which may include:

- * photographs or videos of the Product;
- * photographs of the packaging;
- * the Order number;
- * shipping label information;
- * a description of the issue; and
- * other information reasonably required to investigate the matter.

Where a Product is determined to be defective, damaged in transit, incorrectly supplied or otherwise eligible for remedy under applicable law or our policies, Beyond Button may provide an appropriate remedy, which may include replacement, exchange, repair, refund or another legally permissible solution.

23. REFUNDS

Approved refunds will be processed according to the applicable Refund Policy.

The time required for the amount to reflect in your bank account, card, wallet or other payment method may depend on the relevant payment provider or financial institution.

Where a refund is subject to Product inspection, return verification or other reasonable checks, processing may begin after such verification.

Beyond Button will not intentionally delay an eligible refund beyond the period permitted by applicable law or the applicable Refund Policy.

24. REVIEWS, FEEDBACK AND USER CONTENT

Customers may have the opportunity to submit reviews, ratings, comments, photographs, videos, testimonials, suggestions or other content ("User Content").

By submitting User Content, you confirm that:

1. you own or have the necessary rights to submit it;
2. it does not knowingly violate another person's rights;

3. it is not unlawful, fraudulent, defamatory, obscene, threatening or abusive;
4. it does not contain malicious software; and
5. it complies with applicable law.

You retain ownership of User Content that you lawfully own.

By submitting User Content to Beyond Button, you grant us a non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide licence to use, reproduce, display, publish, adapt, modify and distribute that User Content for legitimate business purposes, including operating, improving, reviewing, marketing and promoting Beyond Button, subject to applicable law and our Privacy Policy.

Where required by law, we will obtain any additional consent necessary for specific uses.

We may remove or refuse to publish User Content that we reasonably believe violates these Terms, applicable law or the rights of another person.

Unauthorised use of our brand identity, photographs, product images, packaging, website content or other protected material may result in appropriate legal action.

Nothing in these Terms grants any implied licence to use our intellectual property.

27. THIRD-PARTY SERVICES AND LINKS

The Platform may use or link to third-party services, including payment processors, logistics providers, analytics providers, communication platforms, social-media services and other technology providers.

Third-party services may operate under their own terms and privacy policies.

Beyond Button does not control third-party services and, subject to applicable law, is not responsible for matters arising solely from the acts or omissions of independent third parties.

Where a third-party service is necessary to complete your transaction, we may share the information reasonably required for that service in accordance with our Privacy Policy.

Where liability is legally capable of limitation, Beyond Button's liability shall be limited to the extent permitted under applicable law and the circumstances giving rise to the claim.

31. INDEMNIFICATION

To the extent permitted by applicable law, you agree to indemnify and hold harmless Beyond Button, its owners, directors, employees, representatives and authorised service providers from claims, losses, liabilities and reasonable costs arising directly from:
